INTERVIEW OF OFFICER BROWDER:

On April 30, 2015, Homicide Team 5 was called out to the area of 3200 Hancock Street in Western Division to investigate an Officer Involved Shooting. Detectives arrived and received a patrol briefing from Sergeant Rick AGUILAR. Detectives learned that at 0005 hours, Police Communications Division received a 9-1-1 call from [REDACTED], a clerk at the “High-lite Bookstore” located at 3203 Hancock Street. [REDACTED] stated he was threatened by a man with a knife in the alley adjacent to the bookstore where he works. [REDACTED] said the man told him he was going to kill him and that he was a dead man. The suspect left and later returned saying something to the effect of that he was going to kill him. [REDACTED] said he saw an officer (Neal BROWDER) arrive and confronted the suspect in the alley. [REDACTED] did not see the confrontation, but said he heard the officer yell “drop it” and he then heard one shot. [REDACTED] said he saw the officer apply first aid to the injured suspect.

Sergeant AGUILAR also identified another witness, [REDACTED], who was standing by waiting to talk to the detectives.

The shooting officer, Nick BROWDER, was at Western Division waiting on his peer support officer and attorney.

Sergeant AGUILAR also identified Officers Vincent DAO, #7122, and Dan LAUGHLIN, #7133, as the other officers who arrived in the area shortly after Officer BROWDER.

The suspect was identified as Fridoon RAWSHANNEHAD, an Afghan male with a DOB of [REDACTED]. He was taken to UCSD Hospital and he was pronounced dead at 0039 hours by [REDACTED]. He suffered a single gunshot wound to the upper torso.

Investigator's Report
Interview of Officer BROWDER
Case #14-045129
Page 2

After the briefing, I assigned Team 5 Detectives to various duties at the scene. Detective Jana BEARD conducted the crime scene investigation. She located one shell casing, some medical intervention equipment and a pen in the crime scene area where RAWSHANNEHAD was shot.

Detectives Chris LEAHY, Dan BUROW and Kate ALLISON spoke to potential witnesses in the area and searched for potential video footage.

At 0309 hours Officer BROWDER and his attorney, Brad FIELDS, returned to the area of 3200 Hancock Street to give a safety walkthrough statement in the area where the shooting took place. The intent of this statement was to learn the number of shots fired, the direction the shot(s) were fired and to identify any potential items of evidentiary value in the area the detectives and lab personnel needed to collect as part of the investigation. The purpose was not to get into any details of why Officer BROWDER fired his weapon or in any way be an interview of the specifics of the shooting. I documented our conversation below. My documentation is not intended to be a word for word account of each word said during the "walk-through," but it is a detailed summary of what was said during the three minute conversation. The conversation was recorded and will be included with the evidence associated with this case.

Officer BROWDER identified the area where he believed he stopped his patrol car in the north end of the west alley of 3700 Riley Street which is directly off of 3200 Hancock Street. Officer BROWDER said he shot one round from his handgun at the suspect who was standing in the alley. Officer BROWDER pointed south into the alley to indicate the direction he fired. I asked Officer BROWDER if he saw any weapons and he stated "No." I asked this question to learn what evidence we needed to look for in the alley. At this point, Police Officer's Association Attorney Brad FIELDS interjected and said Officer BROWDER would not be answering that at this time. I told Mr. FIELDS I was asking so that we would be able to locate and account for anything in the alley. Mr. FIELDS said he understood. I then asked Mr. FIELDS and Officer BROWDER if there was anything we should know to help us locate evidence in the alley. Mr. FIELDS said he didn't think there was anything more than I already knew.

At that point in the conversation, Lieutenant Mike HASTINGS interjected and said "Let's just stop there" to end the dialogue between Attorney Brad FIELDS and I. Lieutenant HASTINGS asked Officer BROWDER what kind of handgun he carried and how he loaded his magazine in his gun. Officer BROWDER said he carried a Glock 21 and he loaded the magazine in his gun to full capacity. He believed his magazine held 13 rounds. Also present for the walk-through with Officer BROWDER was Detectives Dan BUROW, #5268, Kate ALLISON, #5806, and Jana BEARD, #4807, Captain Dave NISLEIT, #4303, Officer Steve WALDHEIM, #5514, Sergeant Marshal WHITE, #4100, Crime Scene Specialists, Katie BOYD, #8260, and Heather MORREIRA, #8702, Criminalist, Shawn MONPETIT, #8673, and Lieutenant Mike HASTINGS.

The walk-through and safety statement concluded at 0312 hours.

Attorney Brad FIELDS advised me Officer BROWDER would not be available for an interview at this time, but was willing to come to the Homicide Office to turn in his gun to the lab for evidence processing and to have his pictures taken. Detective ALLISON and Crime Scene Specialist Katie BOYD handled the photos and gun collection with Officer BROWDER. I provided Officer BROWDER with a replacement gun while his was being processed by the lab. Detective ALLISON also assisted with collecting Officer BROWDER'S Body Worn Camera to search for any possible video of the shooting. Officer BROWDER stated he did not turn on his camera because the events evolved too quickly to do so. Detective ALLISON will be documenting Officers BROWDER'S evidence processing in another report.

On April 30, 2015, Detectives ALLISON and BUROW collected video evidence from a neighboring business of the shooting of Fridoon RAWSHANNEHAD. The video included RAWSHANNEHAD with an object in his hands walking towards Officer BROWDER and Officer BROWDER ultimately shooting him. There was no audio for the collected video.

On May 5, 2015, at approximately 0800 hours, Officer BROWDER and his Attorney Brad FIELDS came to the Homicide Office for an interview at approximately 0800 hours. Lieutenant Mike HASTINGS directed me to prepare a disc of the shooting incident video footage for Officer BROWDER and his Attorney to view prior to the interview. The purpose of the viewing was so that he could refresh his memory of the events from April 30, 2015. BROWDER and FIELDS took approximately 20 minutes to view the video in Lieutenant HASTINGS' office. At approximately 0841 hours, Lieutenant HASTINGS, Officer BROWDER, Attorney Brad FIELDS and I conducted the following interview in a Homicide Office Conference Room. The interview was recorded in its entirety and is documented below in a word for word format. The statement was typed by Word Processor, Rebecca AGUILAR and I have reviewed the documented statement for accuracy.

MH: Mike HASTINGS, Lieutenant – SDPD Homicide Unit

MDT: Manny DEL TORO, Sergeant – SDPD Homicide Unit

NB: Neal BROWDER, Officer – SDPD Western Division

BF: Brad FIELDS, POA Legal Representative

MDT: Okay, this is going to be Sergeant Manny DEL TORO, ID #4754. The date today is Tuesday, May 5th, 2015. The time is 0841 hours. I'm here in an interview with Officer Neal BROWDER and for the people typing this, it's going to be BROWDER, B-R-O-W-D-E-R, first name of Neal, N-E-A-L, middle name of Nicholas and he is a Junior. Also with his attorney, Brad FIELDS and my supervisor and Homicide Lieutenant, Lieutenant Mike HASTINGS. And what's your ID number?

MH: 5-1-7-0.

MDT: 5-1-7-0. Okay. So...prefer Nick or Neal?

NB: Nick.

MDT: Nick? Okay. Nick there's gonna be some, there's some paper if you need to draw anything out, uh, diagrams. If you, if you need to uh, otherwise I'm just gonna ask you some questions regarding the officer involved shooting you were in last night. Or not last night but uh, back on the 30th, at approximately 0007 hours. I'm gonna ask you to....if you can take me back to that night. Let's go ahead and start the radio call you were on, or how you came to that situation where you were involved in the shooting.

NB: Okay, essentially I was parked by the, there's a Pet-Smart. It's approximately, I'd say about three, maybe three to four blocks away. I was in the parking lot there, and I was just working on the computer.

MDT: Um huh.

NB: I was looking at some of the policies because I was getting into the process of getting my paperwork together, studying for the sergeant's exam. Then that's when the uh, the call came out. And it came out as a, as a 'hot call'. It came out as an Asian male, armed with a knife beside the adult book store, which is next to 'Le Girls'.

MDT: Um huh.

NB: over by the body shop.

MDT: Um huh.

NB: So, as I'm listening to the radio, uh the call came out...the call came out as that he was threatening people that were inside the uh, the adult bookstore. And then I heard two officers that were assigned that call. They were coming from a distance. I think they were coming like from Ocean Beach. So I was the closest unit there. So I went ahead and volunteered for the radio call.

MDT: Okay. Now can you give me your...you gave me some information. Can you give me other information regarding that call as far as, in your mind, did you formulate what kind of call you were going to?

NB: Yeah, the call was pretty fluid, so it sounded pretty valid to me. The call came with the dispatcher describing the other suspect as an Asian male, I believe wearing a gray shirt, and either gray shorts or jeans. Armed with a knife threatening the clerk inside the store. And as the call...so I went ahead, I started putting myself on the call and I was going en route to the call, then the updated information was that the suspect left the adult bookstore and was walking down towards the alley. That's where he was last seen.

So as soon as I arrived on scene, I do remember there was someone in the parking lot and he pointed towards the alley. And then that's where, yeah I'm assuming that's probably where he last saw the suspect and so I pulled the car forward, more up into the alley.

MDT: Okay. Let me just stop you right there. Now you mentioned threatening the guy that's working the bookstore?

NB: Right.

MDT: Do you remember...did they describe the type of threats and any potential weapons involved?

NB: Yes. Yeah, the call came out that he was threatening the clerk with a knife. That he was armed with a knife.

MDT: Okay. And that information that came out over the air, you heard that from Communications?

NB: Yes.

MDT: Okay. So you see this person there and he directs you that the person may be in the alley?

NB: Right. There was...I don't know if that was the reporting party or who it was, but there was someone that was actually in the parking lot and he was pointing [sic] to the direction of the alley.

MDT: Okay. And in the alley what'd you see?

NB: Well when I pulled into the alley I see, and it would appear to me to be an Asian male that matched the description that was given by the Communications. And he was wearing a gray shirt, and it looked like he was wearing a blue jean shorts. And I'm seeing it. He's coming through the alley and he's like aggressing my car. And then I wanted to make sure I had the right person so I grabbed the mike and then I asked dispatch again. I said, 'Can you confirm, you know, what the suspect is wearing?' And then she put out to my knowledge, it's he was wearing a gray sweater, I believe she said a red shirt and either blue, blue uh jeans or gray shorts. So I knew that that was the guy that I had. I mean he was coming aggressing my car.

MDT: Okay. Let me just...stop right there. At what point did you first see that individual?

NB: When I saw him initially, I want to say he was between maybe twenty-five to thirty feet away maybe from, from my car.

MDT: Okay, so and where was your car located when you first saw him?

NB: There's a parking lot right next to...would be to the driver's side door.

MDT: Um huh.

NB: And then just...cause I actually had parked right in the middle of the alley. And then just to the uh, to the left of my car, there was a couple of dumpsters right there.

MDT: Um huh.

NB: So when I rolled up, I popped my door open because I saw him as he was starting to walk towards my car.

MDT: Okay. Now was this before or after the one witness told you, or pointed into the alley?

NB: Well as soon as the witness pointed in the alley, cause I was already stopped.

MDT: Okay.

NB: The witness was directing me towards the alley. He was pointing towards the alley. And then as soon as I looked up, then that's when I saw the suspect.

MDT: Okay, so just to make sure I have the sequence of events correctly, you go into the alley.

NB: Right.

MDT: This...you see this witness whose pointing. You look down and you see uh the person you described?

NB: Right.

MDT: Okay. So now you mentioned the word aggressing. Can you describe that behavior to me?

NB: Yeah. He was walking at a fast pace, I mean right towards my car. And I see...I see something in his hand and then that's what I keyed on and it looked like it was a metal object. And it was...I could see the reflection off the light. And it was probably from the light from my cars. And the first thing in my mind is, 'He's armed with a knife'. I mean that's, that's the first thought that was coming through my mind after. 'He's still armed with a knife'. And then the next thing is like why isn't he stopping? For, for some reason, I, I couldn't get it out of my...that this guy is not stopping you know. And that's when I bailed out of my car.

MDT: Okay. Uh, and at that point, were any words exchanged either from you or the person you saw in the alley?

NB: You know at that point, it happened so quick, I can't even remember if I told him anything or not at that point to be honest with you.

MDT: Okay.

NB: I don't remember.

MDT: Okay. And can you tell me at what point...you describe this individual coming to you. And you said at a quick pace?

NB: Yeah.

MDT: Is that correct? I just want to make sure I use your descriptors. Uh, he's coming towards you and you don't recall if any words were exchanged. You notice something in his hand?

NB: Right.

MDT: Was he doing anything with that object or anything specific about it? Do you remember which hand?

NB: Well, it appeared it was in his left hand and he had it down at an angle, but I could see the point of the object, sticking out of the uh, out of uh...it was just like how you would hold a knife. If you're holding up the knife in a...by the handle, and then I saw probably about four inch, I don't know about three to four inches of this object, sticking out of left hand. And you know it appeared to be metal to me. So I mean I'm thinking it's, it was a knife. And the thing was is that he kept coming up to you as...he was aggressive like on the driver's side of the car door. Like on my side of the car door. So I got out and I made sure I cleared the car door and then he wasn't stopping. And I still saw this object in his hand and I swear I thought he was gonna stab me. And then that's why I just I fired.

MDT: Okay. At what...do you...can you recall the distance, in your mind, as far as how far do you think he was? And you can use objects in the alley or your car as a reference point.

NB: (Sighs) Uh, it appeared to me that he was within ten to fifteen feet from where I was standing to where I actually fired that first round.

MDT: Okay. And what was the effect of that round?

NB: He immediately uh started screaming and then he went, he fell to the ground.

MDT: Okay. And at that time did you have the opportunity....or what, what were your actions after that? After he went down?

NB: Well as soon, as soon as he hit the ground, I mean I just went in. I, I reholstered my gun and ran up to him, pulled his shirt open because I didn't know where he was shot at. And then that's when I noticed I hit him in the upper chest.

MDT: Okay. Uh, at the time....now you mentioned that this evolved pretty quickly. And I don't know if you had, but I do need to cover it in case you did. Did any other force options cross your mind at the time?

NB: I didn't even have a chance. I mean it didn't even it cross my mind. It happened that quick. I didn't have a chance to use any other force options.

MDT: Okay. Now in your mind, if you had not, if you had not fired, what did you believe was a potential outcome of, of this? The person coming towards you?

NB: Oh, he was gonna stab me. I, there's no doubt in my mind that he was gonna stab me. That's, that's the only thing I was thinking about when he was aggressing my car. On my side of the car door.

MDT: Okay. Lieutenant, can you think of anything else?

MH: Nick, can you go back to the initial radio call. And can you, can you recall the actual radio call itself. Uh, the information that you were getting. Was it delayed information? Or do you recall?

NB: Uh, I don't believe it was delayed information L.T. I think it was real time information. Because it came out as a 'hot call'.

MH: Okay.

NB: Uh, from what I can remember the dispatcher described him as an Asian male, about 40 to 50 years old, wearing a gray sweater. And like I said, either blue jean shorts or gray colored shorts. Uh, armed with a knife. Uh, God can't remember if they mentioned the height. The description of his height or not. But he was inside the adult book store, and he was threatening people with a knife, inside the adult bookstore.

MH: He was threatening people?

NB: Yes.

MH: They're saying?

NB: Um huh.

MH: Okay. And so when you get there. I know Manny cleaned this up a little bit.

NB: Um huh.

MH: And you'd, we'd mentioned it. When you get there and you see this person pointing towards the alley, where is your car at that point? Do you recall?

NB: My car is probably....

MH: In other words, here's the question. Are you on the street or are you in the alley?

NB: No. I'm actually, I'm actually pulled into the alley.

MH: Okay.

NB: So, it, which is adjacent to the parking lot which is to my left. And the uh, I believe the dumpsters were probably maybe about, maybe fifteen feet in front of my car I want to say.

MH: Okay.

NB: Yeah.

MH: And after the person points to the alley, does your car move anymore or does it stay where it's at?

NB: No. I, actually I moved the car up a little bit. And then I see him and then he's like coming towards the car. And I put the car in park. And then at that point I grab my uh, ra...(believed to be the start of radio) the uh, my mike and I'm confirming the description of the suspect again with Communications.

MH: Okay.

NB: So as I'm doing that, I mean he's still coming and, he's still coming towards my car. Then I throw the mike down on the uh, on the passenger seat. And that's when I immediately got out of the car, cause I had my car door propped open.

MH: Okay. When you see who you believe is now the suspect.

NB: Um huh.

MH: And using the direction where you're standing when you fired, did you initially see the suspect on the right side of the alley or the left side of the alley?

NB: As he's walking towards me?

MH: Yes.

NB: He's walking towards like the driver's side doors, so that would be to my left.

MH: So he's already on that side of the car?

NB: He's already on the left side of the car.

MH: Okay.

NB: I would say, yeah.

MH: Uh, and you say aggressing. And I know Manny asked this and I don't want to beat a dead horse here, but tell me physically what aggressing is to you?

NB: (Sighs) Aggressing is like he, he was focused. It seemed like he was focused on me because as I'm watching him, he's walking. He sees me and then he almost like literally turns towards the driver's side car door. And he's like literally walking towards me. He's walking at me. And what I mean by an aggressive manner, I mean the knife was still in his hand. It was down to his side. He wasn't dropping it. And it just happened quick. I mean he was just, I mean, it almost seemed like he was uh, I don't know. It almost seemed to me in my mind is that he was just so focused on me or the direction where I was at. Cause he was like walking right at me. That's, that's what I can remember. And what I can remember, you know like I said before, he wasn't stopping. And I think that kind of threw me off for a minute because normally, you know, I've been doing this job a long time. And normally when a cop rolls up on it, they know that you're a police officer. You know, they'll stop. You know, they'll either wait for directions or they'll turn, or they'll take off running. They'll do something completely different. And I think what, what, what uh, scared the shit out of me in a sense, is the fact, the guy wasn't stopping. I mean he kept coming towards me. And then that's when I said, 'This guy's gonna stab me'. And at that point that's the only option I thought I had to do was...that's when I shot him.

MH: Okay.
NB: Yeah.

MH: What were you wearing that night?

NB: I was wearing a police uniform, uh, just like regular San Diego Police Department uniform and my badge. My plates and....

MH: What were you driving?

NB: It's a marked patrol car.

MH: And when this happened, was it light or dark outside?

NB: Uh, we had...it was dark outside. Uh, there were some ambient light and I think it was from the business, from the business itself. I can't recall whether or not there is...I believe there might be an out light, but I think that's from the actual business of the body shop. It kind of illuminates the alley a little bit.

MH: Any other lighting you recall?

NB: Uh, just the lights from my, my patrol car. I had my patrol car lights on. Just the head beams.

MH: That's all I have Manny.

MDT: Okay, uh, now after you said you went and administered first aid on this person, do you recall uh, did you put out anything over the air after that?

MH: Yes. I put out uh shots fired and uh, I think that's the only thing I put out. I put out my unit. I said, '615 John, shots fired'. And then by that time uh the other officers that were assigned to the call, they were rolling on up. Uh, the suspect was down on the ground. I think what I remembered is that I pulled his shirt open because I wanted to see exactly where he was hit. I saw that he had an upper gunshot wound to his chest, and I started mainly putting first aid on it. Literally I stuck my...just based on the training that I've had in the past, you know, uh with special gunshot wounds, either you pack the wound or you plug the hole. So I literally stuck my finger in the guy's bullet hole and, and more just to, apply pressure there until uh we could get paramedics or someone that had some gauze. One thing I kept remembering is that I remember when Dan LAUGHLIN rolled up, I kept asking, 'Say, you got any gauze? You got any gauze we can pack this stuff? Pack his wound' and then uh, I think he, he went back to his car to check to see if he had some gauze. He came back. I don't believe he did and I think there was another officer.

And it's DAO. I asked him if he had any gauze in his car. But in the meantime while they're doing that, I literally have their finger in this guy's uh, in the gunshot wound. Just trying to plug the hole to keep him from bleeding out. And then uh, we just kept reassuring the guy he's gonna be okay and it's, you know, everything's okay. Hang in there. Hang in there. Hang in there'. And then for the life of me, it, it seemed like it took forever for paramedics to get there. You know, uh, and by that time there's a group of officers there and they're just trying to help me with the first aid part of it.

MDT: Okay. Uh, two more questions. The last thing is now you were equipped with a body camera that night. Uh, we reviewed it and didn't find any body camera. Can you tell us about that? As far as body cam?

NB: Right. Well we normally....uh, my body camera was malfunctioning.

MDT: Um huh.

NB: For, for at least three weeks. I turned it in to Ops Support. They sent it back, I believe, to the uh manufacture. They sent it back saying that the camera was fixed. Uh, I think the week prior or a few days prior to that, I was having issues with the sync cord, because the camera wasn't mirroring up with the battery pack. It was going through these different life sequences, which means that's it's not...if you turn the camera on, it wouldn't record properly because it wasn't going to proper...I don't know, it had something to do with the sync cord. So I turned that back in.

MDT: Um huh.

NB: And I just got back the camera back, I believe, two days ago. Where the incident and normally what happens is is that I don't turn that camera on until I'm actually out of my car. And uh and then I'll turn the camera on while I'm actually walking up to the scene. But in this case here, it was just so quick and so fluid, I just didn't have a chance. I mean that was the last thing I was thinking about.

MDT: Okay.

NB: Was turn that camera on.

MDT: Okay. Uh, and last thing is you were at the scene. You're doing first aid. You described earlier that you saw the reflection of an object in this individual's, uh, you thought was his left hand?

NB: Right.

MDT: Oh, okay. Now did you see what that object was at any point that evening or what happened?

NB: Yes I did.

MDT: Okay.

NB: It was uh, I think it was a metallic pen that was uh laying next to him, and I believe I think it was blue. But it was like a metallic blue.

MDT: Okay.

NB: And uh, yeah that was there on the sidewalk.

MDT: All right.

BF: I have a few questions.

MDT: Yeah. Go right ahead.

BF: Uh, I believe you said when you fired the one round, he was approximately ten to fifteen feet away from you and advancing on you. And I think you described that in some detail with sort of how he was advancing. Uh, your training experience. How quickly could somebody from that distance literally be on top of you and, and, able to uh, assault or, or kill you with a knife. How quickly can that happen?

NB: Uh, that's, that's in matter of seconds. I mean, in the past when I first came on, the, the we would always use the quote, unquote, the 21 foot rule. If they're within that 21 feet, you know, they can really be on top of you and stabbing you before you react to that. Uh, to counteract the assault. Uh, now the way that the training that they're putting out now, or the information that's available now, it's even further out. So uh, they're trying to get away from that. So they're trying to get away from that quote, unquote, 21 foot rule. But now I think they're trying to extend that distance out even further because I think there's documentation now that someone armed with a knife that can literally run up on someone before you're able to react to that, or already being stabbed.

BF: Either way, this, the suspect was inside?

NB: Oh yeah, absolutely.

BF: By...

NB: Yeah.

BF: your old school standards or new standards, inside that danger zone correct?

NB: Yes, absolutely.

BF: And I believe you said and, in fact, I think you even said it, you know, he's coming at you with a knife. How was he holding...and, and it appears as though it might have ended up being this metallic pen that you described. How was he holding that object uh, as he was advancing on you?

NB: Uh, he had it in his left hand and I could see, like I said, about three inches of the, that object sticking out of his hand. And he actually had it pointed in my direction. And like I said, you know, with the lighting that I had, you know, I interpreted that it was a knife.

BF: Was he...he wasn't holding it like somebody would hold a pen to write uh notes?

NB: No, no, no.

BF: He was holding it like somebody would hold a knife....

NB: If you're gonna stab somebody.

BF: If you're gonna stab somebody?

NB: Absolutely.

Investigator's Report
Interview of Officer BROWDER
Page 12

BF: And I believe you had said when this call came out, it came out of '417 with a knife', that the suspect, the reporting party had reported that the suspect had a knife, correct?

NB: Yes.

BF: Did that figure into your, your thought process as well as this individual is advancing on you with something that's being held? A metallic object that's being held as if it was a knife?

NB: Yes, yes. And while I was there, I never got any updated information that uh, that he, that uh, he wasn't armed. I mean the information I had was that he was still armed with that knife. And that's, that's uh how the call came out and that's how I perceived it was.

BF: That's all I have.

MDT: All right. Lieutenant? Any additional?

MH: That's it. Thank you.

MDT: All right. We're going to go ahead and uh, actually Nick. Do you have anything else that you want to add?

NB: Uh, no.

MDT: That's it? Okay. The time now is 0903 hours and concluding the interview now.

END OF DISC AT 23:01

At the end of the interview, I coordinated the release of Officer BROWDER'S gun from the lab and I collected the department gun that was loaned to Officer BROWDER on April 30, 2015.
